

A black and white photograph of a large, abandoned industrial building. The interior is filled with overgrown vegetation, graffiti, and debris. The ceiling is high with a complex network of steel beams and pipes. The walls are made of brick and concrete, showing signs of decay. The floor is covered in dirt and weeds. The overall atmosphere is one of neglect and urban decay.

Benannt nach der im Rust Belt gelegenen Industriestadt Detroit, von der ein Strahlen ausging, das ganz Amerika leuchten ließ, lässt auch dieser Eyecatcher Wände und Böden im angesagten Industrial Look erstrahlen. In den Farbnauncen Nickel White, Copper Brown, Steel Grey und Iron Black werden die angesagten Metallic-Farbtöne neu in Szene gesetzt. Das farbliche Highlight der Serie, Copper Brown, beweist einmal mehr: Kupfer ist das neue Gold. Speziell in Kombination mit kupferfarbenen Pendelleuchten, Indoor-Pflanzen und Vasen in Betonoptik sorgen diese XXL-Fliesen für Glamour und einen Hauch von Luxus in den eigenen vier Wänden.

This gunmetal eyecatcher, named after the industrial city of Detroit, allows walls and floors to shine as bright as the most valuable metals. The city's economic wealth radiated so brightly that its success shined forth over the entire country. In the intriguing color shades Nickel White, Copper Brown, Steel Grey and Iron Black these popular kinds of metals attract admiring attention. The visual highlight of the series, Copper Brown, once again proves: Copper is the new gold. Especially in combination with pending lights in shining metal, indoor plants and concrete vases, these XXL-tiles ensure both glamour and a touch of luxury within your own four walls.
